Christmas Music

Deeply enjoyed by everyone, Christmas music reflects the spirit of the season. CKUA's Music Library contains an extremely large collection of music for the Yuletide, and listeners will hear the good old carols, religious music and the ever popular "White Christmas" performed by Bing Crosby, the Trinity Choir, Marian Anderson, St. Bartholomew's Choir, Audrey Lynn, the Cloister Quartet, the Associated Mixed Chorus and many others. Keep tuned to this station for the Christmas music to enjoy. May we remind you that Dicken's Christmas Carol, the Night Before Christmas and Handel's Messiah, will be broadcast Christmas Eve and Christmas Day as usual.

Merry Christmas

To all our listeners, to all of you who have so kindly written us during the year, to the musical and dramatic artists who have appeared on the "Alberta Talent" series, to the many friends we have made in broadcasts from the towns of our province, to the businessmen of Edmonton who impatiently await the arrival of our commercial license, to the students who receive part of their education over this station, a cheerful Christmas Greeting from the management and staff of CKUA.

A variety of subjects is listed for the Farm and Home program for December. Sinclair, Dean of the Faculty of Agriculture at the University of Alberta will bring to listeners the Compliments of the Season. The talk by Dr. C. C. Spence of the Dominion Economics Division will be of special interest, coming as it does around the time when we are beginning to think about income tax returns.

Suggestions from our audience are welcome. If with this programme before you, you have ideas on any of the topics mentioned, we shall be glad to hear about them.

All hockey broadcasts in December start at 9:00 p.m. Listen in and you'll enjoy the vivid, accurate and exciting description of the play as the puck surges up and down the ice and occasionally reaches the twine behind the goalie.
